November 18, 2014 Paris, France

Internationalisation. Innovation.

As every year the Journées de l'AFTE will give you the opportunity to meet with fellow colleagues of the treasury world, visit banks or publishers.

You will have the possibility to exchange on a number of topics and attend debates.

It is the ideal forum to take a step back; do some benchmarking and networking; get an update on what new developments have been made in the field of technology and legislation; discover the commercial offerings from banks and publishers.

Visit us on Booth 30.

Please note that this event is in French only.
