

Spotlight on Germany: Priorities, Opportunities and Innovations in Corporate Treasury

published on 06.11.2017

With growth rates in Germany continuing to strengthen, corporations headquartered or operating in Germany are optimistic about the prospects ahead. At the same time, global economic and political volatility and, closer to home, the UK's intention to exit the European Union creates challenges and uncertainties. In an environment in which confidence is balanced with caution, what are corporate treasurers' priorities, and how are they equipping their organisation for the challenges and opportunities ahead?

Jorg Konrath, Head of Sales, BNP Paribas Cash Management, Germany writes in Treasury Management International.
